Did you know?

The Eiffel Tower grows more than 6 inches during the Summer! The heat causes the 1,062 ft iron structure to expand. What's even more crazy is that when the sun sets, the tower shrinks back to its normal height!

Watermelons are not fruits but are actually vegetables. They belong to the cucurbit family, which also include cucumber, pumpkin & squash. They are also made out of 92% water. No wonder they're called WATER-melons!

Huntington Beach, CA, hosts the annual Surf City Surf Dog contest to raise money for animal welfare organizations. Dogs are judged based on their confidence riding a wave and how long they stay up.
